What an inspiring two days at JOBVERSE Állásbörze job fair! 🎉

It was truly rewarding to engage with hundreds of talented professionals eager to use their expertise in HR, Finance, IT, and Payroll to make a difference for children worldwide. Seeing this level of passion and interest in UNICEF's mission reinforces why employer branding is more than just a job—it's about connecting purpose-driven people with meaningful careers.

A huge thank you to my amazing colleagues for their dedication and energy in making this event a success, and to everyone who stopped by our booth, asked insightful questions, and explored opportunities with us. Your enthusiasm fuels our work! 🚀

Let's keep the conversation going—feel free to connect! 💙
